How to grow

Hi

Oct 26/12

I am going to try to explain as to how God speaks to us, teaches us, and corrects us. And it is ALL through his WORD, if he speaks to our Spirit and soul, it will ALWAYS line up to his WORD.

IF he uses another persons preaching or speaking, IT IS ALWAYS the Holy Spirit that teaches us and not the person themselves.

It don't matter if we read it, hear it, or agree with everything thats said, it is the Holy Spirit that will teach us, IF WE LET HIM !!!

The Lord has taught me many things that I have not heard preached but rather through him speaking to my mind or understanding while reading or listening to his word. HE HAS however taught me many things through the foolishness of preaching, even the ones that lift themselves up or hound you for money. I do not say that it was Bro. so-n-so that taught me, but God taught me through the word that was shared.

In the early 1970's, I was so hungry for God and I believe he told me to read and re-read the bible, also he said he would bring books, tapes and preaching my way. That would lead me into the paths of his righteousness and HE would bring to my remembrance all the things He taught me, when their needed.

As we LISTEN to teachings, testimonies or anything that is connected to Gods word or Power, we can't help but grow in the Lord.

Almost three years ago it seemed that I had come to a stale mate in my spiritual growth and it scared me. As one NEVER stops learning unless you give up, and I had no intention of doing that. So I made it a matter of fasting and prayer, and the essence of my prayer was, There are many things you taught me in the 70's and there was a lot I understood but not fully. Lord I know it was good but I put it on the shelf for future teaching, please refresh my memory. Six months later, the Lord brought a name to me and I believe he said listen to him.

Now I'm not trying to promote him as somebody Special because he is not. He's just a God fearing man that has been called to teach the word of God in ALL TRUTH. He don't promote himself nor beg for your money and so God has blessed him. BUT if one won't listen, you'll never know.

What really got my attention, he was teaching exactly about the things that God had showed me in the 70's. Only in much more detail than I ever could. Even tho I knew the basis of his teaching, I have grown so much more in the last two+ years. It has answered a lot of the things I more or less stuck on the shelf years ago plus much much more.

Now this guy has a Texan accent, he doesn't shout and holler or jump around, he just sits there and calmly talks about what the bible teaches. The BALANCE between GRACE and FAITH and how WE can access Gods love and benefits ourselves and he does it in such a way (Holy Spirit) that if you can't understand it and get excited about your salvation, THEN YOUR WOOD IS WET.

I have obtained several of his teachings on DVD to loan out, so that anyone that is sincere about growing in the Lord, can do so. For those that are out of our borrowing range, I will send the websites for you to watch at your leisure. I personally have seen the growth of those that have watched these DVD's

There are a lot of religious people that don't like his teachings and this is because he teaches the unadulterated word of God, I can personally testify that is all the word of God.

The trouble with religious or self-righteous people is they don't believe all the bible or refuse to examine themselves to see if the Holy Spirit is talking to them.

This reminds me of a story about a guy that was trapped in a flood. A boat came by to rescue him and he said no, I prayed and the Lord will save me. The flood went higher and again a boat came, with the same answer. Now the only thing out of the water was the roof of the house. A helicopter came by and got the same answer. The man drowned and said to the Lord, I thought you were going to save me. The Lord replied, I tried to but you refused the rides

People pray, HELP me grow - but then they refuse the help he sends.
