

#272 What is Trust

trust

put one's trust in, have faith in, have (every) confidence in, believe in believe

be convinced by, trust, have confidence in, consider honest, consider truthful.

confidence

the feeling or belief that one can rely on someone or something; firm trust:

1John 5:10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son

The record that God gave, is the scriptures!!!

How many of the religious christians believe the whole scriptures?

According to Matthew 25, it is 50%, this is not my figures, but the Lord, read it for yourself.

The bible tells us that the Holy Spirit is our mentor and teacher. John 14:26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

1John 2:27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

There are many more scriptures that say God or Jesus or the Holy Spirit will speak for you or give you the witness in your heart (not your head), that we have the mind of Christ. Mr 13:11, 1Co 2:-16, plus many more

But man, in his infinite carnal wisdom says you have to go to cemetery, I mean seminary in order to preach the Gospel and do the miracles that Jesus did Most seminaries no not even believe in everyday miracles let alone the Holy Spirit actually showing you things, after all every preacher that thinks their somebody. Has a bible filled with their own personal commentaries Now there is nothing wrong with listening to others opinions

BUT you would be surprised at the number of people that figure the Holy Spirit teaches you through commentaries instead of Him teaching you personally.

Commentaries are a great way to learn the various opinions of man. But if you want the Holy Spirit to teach you, YOU MUST FIRST TRUST HIM.

We now days want everything instant, the scripture in Isaiah 40:31 that says: "They that wait upon the lord," we say, "But Lord I've waited a whole hour." (do you get the point)

As we talk to various pastors and church members about the bible, it is very common to hear, "Oh we don't believe in that."

Now where did they learn their unbelief? These lies and misconceptions have been taught through the seminaries, and you were wondering why those that are taught by the Holy Spirit call them cemeteries.

A seminary or bible college that uses the BIBLE as their ultimate textbook, this allows the Holy Spirit to teach and instruct them. He will also bear witness in your spirit whether or not the things being discussed are from God or from man.

But unfortunately MOST cemeteries only refer to the actual bible on occasion. Pretty well all their textbooks are written by MAN, to bolster their doctrinal belief.

In the old testament, they had schools of prophets way back then, you see, MAN, as a whole has never really trusted God.

Why do you think that God in his word says that not many wise are called.

1 Corinthians 1:26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

Elijah called a farmer out plowing (and not from the school of prophets) to follow him and be his successor.

1 Kings 19:19 So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed by him, and cast his mantle upon him.

The apostles were fisherman, God took Paul into Arabia for over three years to re-program all his religious training, Martin Luther was a nobody in the catholic assembly and pretty well all of our known revivals in the last few hundred years were people that were converted and trusted and obeyed God.

You see, Man with all his good intentions, has tried to (without their knowledge) replace the office and ministry of the Holy Spirit

HOW YOU SAY? - By writing all these new bible translations, supposedly so man can better understand (no faith) and everybody that thinks there somebody, has for sale, a bible with their name and commentary

They are making converts and disciples to their own doctrinal belief, whereas if people trust the Holy Spirit to teach them, they become converts and deciples of Jesus (the word of God).

Luke 24:25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken: (this includes the new testament)
