

# 310. Easy to Believe

I was ask, "Why is it so easy for you to believe Jesus and His Word" ?

I was taught by parents and grandparents that the bible was the true written word of God. You may not understand it all, but it is true and God cannot lie.

Galatians 1:20* Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

Titus 1:2* In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

As I was growing up I was told to ask, if I didn't know something, this was referring to my Heavenly father as well in the natural realm. It is like one day when I was very young, I was walking along holding my dads hand and out of the blue I can remember asking him; "How old was mom when you married her," and just as nonchalant, he said 16. I said OK and said no more, because my dad (who didn't lie) said so. And so it is with my Heavenly father and it's impossible for him to lie.

The Lord and I have had many, many such like conversations over the years, as far back as I can remember.

Back in the 70s, I heard a message that involved Melchizedek (Ge 14:18), one day just out of the blue, I ask God, "Who was Melchizedek."

And just as nonchalantly as my earthly dad did, he said Noah, to which I said , "Oh OK," and have not doubted it to this day.

In about 2006 I was attending a bible study on Hebrews with some evangelic denominational brethren members and the Lord spoke to me one day and he said, write down a scriptural reference as to why I said Noah was Melchizedek. So I thought this might help some have a better understanding of the book of Hebrews as we studied it. This was not a new religion or doctrine, it was just a spiritual truth the Lord told me.

Now the natural mind cannot fathom this, the natural or carnal mind says not true, the bible says he had no father or mother and Noah did.

To this in my writing, God had already answered this comment, He said that since everything was new on this side of the flood, Noah was the only man that had neither father or mother on this side of the flood.

I have been mocked and ridiculed for this and accused of starting a new religion, even though it has absolutely nothing to do with salvation. ONLY in ones ability to trust the Holy Spirit as our teacher.

Romans 8:6* For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

Romans 8:7* Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

I think in the natural mind as well, but when it comes to choosing, I choose to believe the spiritual over what the circumstance declares.

The carnal mind has set up Doctors, Educational and Media opinions ahead of what God says in his word and what the Holy Spirit speaks to your Spirit.

The Holy Spirit does not shout and yell, but rather whispers to you, his voice is unique. (Joh 10:27)

If he did holler and shout, we wouldn't listen because he hurts our ears.

Since my affliction of Satan, I have a very unique voice, It is similar to someone with Cerebral Palsy.

I only have to phone a Company or someone once, and the next time I call and start to talk, they will say, "Oh Hi Ken." If the Holy Spirits voice was that unique, we would walk by SOUND and not by FAITH.

Now before you say, "Thats well and good but I don't have the faith you do." To which the scripture replies Romans 12:3* For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

You see, we ALL have the SAME measure of faith, you have heard the saying, that if you do something long enough and often enough, you will eventually get good at it. And that applies to the natural as well as the spiritual.

So you see, it is by faith and repetition that it becomes easier, NO FAITH, NO GAIN.
