The difference between "complete" and "finished"...

No dictionary has ever been able to satisfactorily define the difference between “complete” and “finished.” However, during a recent linguistic conference, held in London, England and attended by some of the best linguists in the world, Samsundar Balgobin, a Guyanese linguist was the presenter when he was asked to make that very distinction.

The question put to him by a colleague in the audience was this: “Some say there is no difference between ‘complete’ and ‘finished’. Please explain the difference in a way that is easy to understand”.

Mr. Balgobin’s response: “When you marry the right woman, you are ‘complete.’

If you marry the wrong woman, you are ‘finished.’

And, if the right one catches you with the wrong one you are ‘completely finished.’”

Colossians 2:10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power:

Ephesians 2:12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:
